AI Quickstart for AI for private investigators

The realistic AI use cases on one page — no hype, with clear limits.

AI for private investigators — where it really saves time

- 1. Wording inquiry and client emails discreetly
- 2. Structuring quotes and general contract building blocks
- 3. Turning your own raw notes into readable report drafts
- 4. Answering online reviews factually
- 5. General info texts for website and social media

Limit: AI gives you drafts, no guarantees. The professional and legal final check always stays with you.
