AI Quickstart for AI for animal naturopaths

The realistic AI use cases on one page — no hype, with clear limits.

AI for animal naturopaths — where it really saves time

- 1. Answering enquiry and appointment emails from pet owners
- 2. Drafting appointment reminders and follow-ups
- 3. Practice organisation: notices, checklists, procedures
- 4. Replying to online reviews
- 5. Website info texts and educational material

Limit: AI gives you drafts, no guarantees. The professional and legal final check always stays with you.
